<ul style="list-style-type: none">– He was always so engaging and encouraged students to participate– He was always ready to answer any questions any students had and tried his best to provide the most beneficial answer– He was always friendly and made a very comfortable teaching environment
Discussed content very well
He was really good about helping us when we had questions, as he took the time to explain things so we could understand. His slides were very helpful and really aided our learning. He has a strong grasp of the concepts and was able to put them in terms we could easily get.
Approachable, easily accessible (always replied to emails promptly) thorough explanations, interacted with class, enthusiastic, friendly and approachable
Always encouraged student participation and ensured that all students understood content before moving on Provided really helpful slides for the class to ensure that everyone understood the theory from lectures (sometimes upcoming) before moving onto the questions Approachable and responded to queries in a clear and cohesive way Always offered assistance and walked around the room often to make sure that anyone who was struggling could ask for help without feeling uncomfortable
Thanks so much for the term! I had a (surprisingly) great time calculating stats and you were always super clear with your explanations, responsive to questions and were an amazing and approachable tutor overall and I really appreciated your efforts :)
He explained difficult content in a really digestible way. He always offered his time to the class for any questions and was very supportive throughout the term.
Anthony was great, really encouraged critical thinking but also was great at clarifying content questions. Went through content methodically in detail and gave valuable individual/small group help where needed
Anthony's tutorials were a key reason why I felt confident going into the midterm. A great tutor!
Oh my goodness the kindest and sweetest tutor ever! He is extremely caring and considerate, and not intimidating at all! Tutorials with him were all really good, he explains concepts well and really puts in that effort to ensure that students understand concepts and explanations. Additionally, I am able to send him emails asking questions regarding concepts or the assignment, and his explanations are very detailed and thorough. I feel so grateful to have had him as my tutor! He is SO NICE! :)
Very engaging. Makes humorous comments to keep engagement and was not deterred by the lack of vocal communication. He is always encouraging people to ask questions as well.
He ensured that students understood the content and broke down questions in a way that was easily comprehensible.
He made tutorials a comfortable learning environment and answered any questions we had well– even through email.
I had to attend quite a few different tutorials this trimester but I felt as if Anthony's were by far the most helpful. He explained all of the content in a way that was easy to understand and tried his best to not over complicate a lot of the content. He was also very kind and supportive during the tutorials which was greatly appreciated.
Loved Anthony! He was a great help and encouraged us to participate (not easy to do over zoom). Thank you Anthony for all of your help!
Very kind and supportive, tried his best to encourage student participation (I know it's hard with us all being online and most students seemingly unwilling to participate)
<ul style="list-style-type: none">– his clear explanations– his willingness to help students
Helpful, provided detailed information for the class, class was enjoyable.

Stop making these self depreciating jokes! I'm not 100% sure if it was Anthony or Chris but at the start of the term they kept making these jokes that were really mean to themselves and usually about their image, e.g. "now you can all stare at my ugly mug", or "listen to my boring voice". I know this isn't really about the course but I just thought they should be more confident cause he was doing a really great job and I was actually engaged!

Nothing I can think of!
I think his teaching style is great as it is.
